We are requested to state that persons desiring to contribute to the fund for the restoration of Mr. Turner's office can find a subscription list at the store of Messrs. W. H. Jones & Co.

Remember that L. Levy, located two doors north of the Market House, on Fayetteville street, is selling out his entire stock of dry goods, notions, clothing, boots and shoes, at cost, and carriage. Fair visitors will do well to make a note of this fact.

Major Miller brought one Walter Draughan, here yesterday, and put him in jail. The prisoner is thought to have been a Ku Klux. He lived in this county, and was taken from his cotton field and brought here and imprisoned.

Now is the time to subscribe to the DAILY and WEEKLY NEWS. The very latest market reports are given daily, and during the sitting of the Legislature, soon to convene, we shall give the fullest reports of its proceedings. Persons visiting the city should call in and see us.

"Hidden Hand" to-night at Tucker Hall. That it will be a grand success there is no reason to doubt. Mrs. Rose Watkins, the Star, supported by the charming Miss Parker, decidedly one of the best actresses that ever appeared on the Raleigh stage, with the formidable Harry Watkins, with his right and left bowers, Paul and Jordan, forms a combination that guarantees success. This is decidedly the best Company that ever visited our city, and should be liberally patronized.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We invite special attention to the following new advertisements which appear this morning:

P. F. Pescud & Son, Insurance Agents, announce themselves as agents for a large number of good Companies. They are thoroughly reliable business men.

The People's Building and Loan Association of this city will have a meeting at the Courthouse Friday evening, at 8 o'clock.

The Rescue Steam Fire Company, No. 1, offers a reward $200 for any information that will lead to the arrest of the perpetrators of the Sentinel disaster.

The Roller Skating Rink is open every evening during Fair week. To those who have not witnessed this splendid exercise, we would say there is nothing in the city more novel and entertaining.

Mr. C. B. Dorman, of the Kelynn Nursery, Pittsboro, N. C., announces that he will be in Raleigh this week, and will be prepared to execute all orders for ornamental trees, shrubs, roses, &c., which may be left with Messrs. W. H. Jones & Co.

MEETING OF THE STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—The State Agricultural Society held a meeting in the Convention Hall on last night. An animated session took place in regard to the State Fair to some other point. No decision was arrived at. The late hour at which the meeting was held, and the fact that the account of our reporter, is an abstract of the discussion.

THE DAILY NEWS.

VOL. I.

RALEIGH, N. C., WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCT. 16, 1872.

NO. 165.

AFFAIRS IN JOHNSTON COUNTY.—Our correspondent at Smithfield, under date of Monday, gives us the following items:

The quiet of the Sabbath in Smithfield was somewhat disturbed by the arrival of a wagon from Boon Hill containing a magistrate, guard and prisoner. A man by the name of W. D. Stanley had been employed by Mr. Heinmann of Boon Hill to gin cotton, and on Saturday night last, in company with a negro by the name of Sandy Jones, entered the gin house from the roof of the engine house, and removed several pounds of lint cotton thence to his residence, about one hundred yards distant. The owner had been apprised of the intentions of Stanley by the negro, and his movements had been watched for several nights. In the meantime the negro had been told to do whatever Stanley said, as he would be watched. After arriving at his house with the cotton several citizens surrounded the house to prevent the escape of Stanley. G. W. Britt, a magistrate of the township, was soon on hand and issued a warrant for the arrest of Stanley. The case was tried and on the testimony of the negro, and the eye witnesses, he was remanded to jail to await his trial at the next term of the court. This seems to be an old offender and has several times before this been in serious difficulties, and stealing will doubtless prove his ruin yet. He has thus far been very lucky in getting out of scrapes, but it is certain that this offence will send him to the penitentiary without fail. He denied stealing this cotton, but the proof is overwhelming, as there were 4 or 5 citizens who were on the watch purposely, saw him enter the gin house, bring out the cotton and carry it to his house. His wife has always been considered a good woman, and seems to love him dearly. On the night in question, she opened the door on his arrival, and asked "is that you honey?" This goes to prove that she knew what her husband was about, and has weakened the faith of the community in her sincerity.

CAPT. T. F. LEE, }
COL. R. HAMILIN, }

A SLIGHT MISTAKE, CREATING A LITTLE CUSING.—The unusual discipline, good order and quiet among the colored help at the Yarbrough House was somewhat disturbed and thrown into confusion on yesterday by the sudden appearance of a game cock man, with a big stick in one hand and a brick bat in the other, perambulating the back yard. The nature of the trouble was this: Mr. S. brought from Chatham a nice lot of game hens and cocks for the State Fair, and put them on the Yarbrough House baggage wagon, without marks or instruction. They duly arrived and soon went the way of all flesh, and by the time Mr. S. made his appearance they were all killed and half picked—while he had our full sympathy, we could not help a hearty laugh at his tempered looks and profane language. His cussing will long be remembered and treasured by those who were brave enough to remain in hearing.

FOR TEXAS.—We had the pleasure of seeing in our office on yesterday, R. H. Kingsbury, Esq., Dr. P. W. Young and Mr. John Royster, of Oxford, en route for Texas, whether they go on a prospecting tour. We regret to see valuable citizens becoming dissatisfied with the old North State, and trust yet that they will see nothing in Texas to induce them to determine upon a permanent removal.

A MISTAKE.—The big snake in the California Combination did not make any attempt to swallow any one yesterday. The Cressian Queen handles the snake without fear. It is in fact perfectly harmless, and can be used by any one as a cravat.

THE STATE FAIR—FIRST DAY.—The attendance yesterday was as usual on the first day, comparatively slim.

We visited the various Exhibits, and notwithstanding the managers were busily receiving articles for exhibition, yet the show was very creditable considering the disadvantages circumstances.

In Floral Hall, we observed the usual variety of articles that adorn this apartment, ladies' neckties, lace and chochet work, infants, children and Misses saques, bodices, and under clothing generally, none of which we knew anything about, and some of our female friends, being near, we could find out nothing about them.

Notwithstanding the fact that we are a married man of five years standing, we saw many petty laces and filled things that we knew nothing of, where and how they were worn. In fact it was none of our business, and we made no enquiries.

We also observed a large variety of green plants and flowers, many of which were contributed by a lady of Greensboro, whose name we could not learn, and Miss Helen Litchford, of this city. Among the collection of plants exhibited by Miss Litchford, was a curiosity known as an "Air" plant, which attracted much attention. It originated from a root dug from the garden and thrown upon a bank of leaves last winter. From the root, a beautiful plant came out last spring, different from the original plant. As there was no soil to nourish its root, the name of "Air" plant was given it by Miss Litchford.

A full blown night blooming cereus also attracted a great deal of attention. In the hall for the exhibition of carriages, buggies, &c., we observed some beautiful work, both phaetons and buggies, exhibited by the celebrated manufacturer, Mr. Harp, of this city. (We have an article already prepared, giving full description of his large manufacturing, but is "pressed" out for the present.)

The Hall for ores, minerals, shells, &c., has a larger collection than any year previous. Col. Hunter, of Lincoln, exhibits a large variety from his country. We could not of course give any idea of this exhibition, as all rocks are the same to us, if they are large enough to throw at a dog.

The show of Agricultural implements is large and accessions are being made every hour. We will give a more extended account to-morrow.

A large number of blooded horses are on exhibition and the contest in this department will be lively.

The hog, sheep and goat stalls are full, and the exhibition much improved on last year.

L. Paxson enters bay horse "Twist," J. Pomeroy enters bay horse "Romeo." Twist won easily in three straight heats, in 3:54, 3:14, 3:31.

Romeo though defeated, contested closely the ground with his well trained antagonist, being beaten in the first and second heats by not more than a half length.

The races to-day promise to be very interesting to spectators, and as native stock are permitted, the contest will doubtless be close and exciting.

The trains of yesterday evening brought in large accessions to the exhibition and it is now believed the present fair will eclipse that of last year, by far, both in number and quality of articles on exhibition.

LANGUAGE OF STONES.—We publish, by request, the following interpretation of the months by precious stones, which will be found very interesting:

From superstition said to have originated in Poland, that the month of the nativity of every individual is mysteriously connected with some one of the precious stones:

JANUARY—Jacinth or Garnet, constancy not fidelity in every engagement.

FEBRUARY—Amethyst, peace of mind.

MARCH—Blood-stone, courage and success in dangers.

APRIL—Sapphire and Diamonds, reverence and innocence.

MAY—Emerald, success in love.

JUNE—Agate, long life and health.

JULY—Cornelian or Ruby, forgetfulness.

AUGUST—Sardonyx, conjugal felicity.

SEPTEMBER—Chrysolite, preserves from folly.

OCTOBER—Aquia, Marine, or Opal, misfortune and hops.

NOVEMBER—Topaz, fidelity and friendship.

DECEMBER—Turquoise or Malachite, success and happiness.

Proverb—"He who possesses a Turquoise will always be sure of friends."

THE POMEROY SNEAD CONCERTS.—The Pomeroys Sneads Troupe who are to give Concerts at Metropolitan Hall on Wednesday and Thursday nights of this week, have a most enviable reputation as accomplished artists. Miss Pomeroy is heralded by the press as a singer of remarkable powers. Her voice is said to be rich, round and sympathetic. Her feats of vocal agility are reported as very beautiful, brilliant and startling. The brothers, Albert and Louis, boys of 8 and 9 years, are gifted wonderfully considering their ages. The Snead quartette is pronounced to be the best arranged on the continent, comprising some of the oldest musical talents. In the troupe are many famous musicians, among them Lerig Snead, Rahner Rabecchini, R. S. Glover and others. The Raleighites and visitors to the Fair will enjoy a rich treat in the beautiful Concerts that will be given.

ROBINSON'S MENAGERIE AND CIRCUS.—Let everybody bear in mind that this great exhibition will be in Raleigh on the 24th inst. The Virginia papers speak of it in terms of high praise. A correspondent of the Petersburg Index, writing from Lynchburg, says it is thought to be the best show that has ever visited that place. It is doubtless a grand affair.

AID FOR THE SENTINEL.—It affords us singular satisfaction to record that the good citizens of the thriving village of Durham, have raised and forwarded to George D. Miller, Esq., of this city, the sum of $75.00, which they desire to be applied in purchasing a new outfit for Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr., editor of the Sentinel. We have also received a letter from a citizen of Maryland commenting with becoming severity upon the atrocious crime which was perpetrated in the destruction of the Sentinel office. This we will publish at the earliest moment possible.

A subscription paper has been opened at the Commission House of W. H. Jones & Co., of this city and many names have already been entered. Let the friends of Mr. Turner rebuke his enemies in their base assaults upon his character, by liberal contributions for his immediate relief. Gentlemen who are indebted to the Sentinel are sending in the amounts due. This is as it should be.

[For the Daily News, Messrs. Editors: Please oblige me with the subjoined statement. In the Era of 15th inst., the following occurs:

"Our tender of assistance was accepted, and the weekly edition of The Sentinel for this week was accordingly run off on the Era press, and will reach the patrons of the paper as usual."

The tender of the Era was not accepted. Mr. Turner sent word to the Editor of the Era that the News Office was tendered him in getting out his paper. In the absence of Mr. Turner, and without his knowledge, I applied to Messrs. Edwards and Broughton, of the Spirit of the Age, to work off one side of the Weekly edition, one side having been worked off before the blowing up of the press.

These gentlemen cheerfully consented to oblige us, and I supposed the Sentinel was indebted to them, and not directly to the Era, as the paper was never included in any way, either directly or indirectly.

Very Respectfully,
Geo. D. MILLER.

TUCKER HALL.—"Kathleen Mavourneen," an Irish Drama of considerable merit, was played last night at Tucker Hall by the excellent company of which Harry and Rose Watkins are the head. The admirable actress, Mrs. Watkins, performed her part most charmingly, investing it with all the archness, simplicity and feeling which always characterize her extremely natural style of acting. Mr. Watkins, who is a remarkably clever actor, rendered Terrence with great spirit and effect, and excited much applause from the very fine audience that greeted him on his second night. He and his gifted wife, are the best actors we have ever seen on the Raleigh boards. They are well sustained by a stock company that would do credit to any city. Our advice is, if you wish to see really good histrionic performance, to go to Tucker Hall.

OVIDE DUPRE, Esq., our friend and townsman, assistant elector for the 3th Congressional District, has just returned from a short canvass in Moore county. He was most cordially received by the hospitable people of that county, and spoke to large crowds. Mr. Dupre represents a good feeling existing among the people, and all that was lacking was proper organization. They will give good proof of themselves in November. Mr. Dupre is a vigorous and earnest speaker, and will accomplish good for the cause of Greeley and Reform wherever he may speak.

The Weed "Family Favorite" Sewing Machine is a favorite indeed. The first premium at the Fair at Salisbury was awarded it over all others on exhibition. W. D. Powers & Co., are the general agents for North Carolina.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15. A Memphis special says advices from Osceola, Arkansas, to noon 13th, at that time the citizens were still under arms, and greatly excited under the reports that negroes were marching on the place. Scores of prisoners have been captured, and the jail is crowded. Citizens are shipping their families and goods to places of safety.

The steamer Cedace en route to Memphis, was hailed fifteen miles below Osceola, and on reaching the landing, a gang of armed negroes demanded to be taken to Osceola, but they were driven off and the steamer got away safely. Armed bands were seen at other points on the river. Fitz Patrick did not proceed to Little Rock, but crossed to Crittenden county, where he endeavored to prevail on the Sheriff to cross with him into Mississippi county, with a posse of negroes, but the Sheriff declined, and stated that the militia were en route from Little Rock to the scene of trouble.

Banquet Given to Archbishop Bayley

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15. A Baltimore despatch says that the Archbishop of New York, and all the Bishops attending the ceremonies and installation of Archbishop Bayley, were in conference yesterday for several hours. It is understood that a provincial council will be convened early in the administration of the new Archbishop.

The interests of colored people subject to secular education was a prominent topic for consideration at the banquet given to Archbishop Bayley; that dignity in his remarks said, that he never did believe in opposing the liberty of conscience, and was an earnest advocate of its fullest exercise. He believed he was appointed to his present trust because he was known to be opposed to the materialistic spirit of the age and an enemy of intemperance.

Neff Elected—Republican Votes Thrown Out.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 15. The official vote of the ninth Congressional district elects Neff over Shanks, Republican, by twenty-eight votes, but in one township in Adams county, Shanks' district, forty-seven Republican votes were thrown out on account of the words, "Republican ticket," being printed at the head of the ticket. If these votes are allowed, Shanks is elected by nineteen votes.

Propeller Foundered.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Field's Case Postponed—Tweed's Case on the Tap.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15. The Court postponed the trial of Thomas C. Field, charged with fraud against the city. The trials were set for the 20th inst. Field's counsel said he was unaware of Field's whereabouts. The counsel for Tweed moved to quash the indictment in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, which was for cheat in converting to his use an order on the city. The grounds of objection were, that the indictment does not allege the signature of the payee for gold or otherwise, and, therefore, the warrant could not be proved property; that after the said indictment and order to some bill of Keyser & Co., were found against the defendant in the general sessions for larceny or forgery, and the last indictment superseded the first under the statute; also that what is stolen cannot be got by cheat. The counsel also claimed that Tweed was prevented by a multiplicity of indictments. The argument was adjourned at the request of the counsel representing the Attorney General to Thursday.

Great Excitement at Osceola.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 15. A feverish state of excitement still exists in Osceola, Arkansas, and many of the citizens are fleeing with their families in anticipation of another attack of negroes. No further bloodshed is reported. The whites of the village are still under arms and all approaches are guarded.

Indians on the War Path—Soldiers Killed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15. Advice from Tucson, Arizona Territory, October 8th, says that on the 13th of September, the Apaches Indians attacked Hughes rancho near Cullenden, killed Americans and stole animals belonging to the farm. Lieutenant Hall, of the 5th cavalry, went to the rancho where Mrs. Gubara and her child were besieged by the Indians, and found the savages one hundred strong, all armed with breach loading guns. They retired to the mountains and defied the troops. A Sergeant and five men were dispatched to ward the farmers of Sonora Valley of the presence of hostile Indians near Hughes Rancho, but they were attacked, and Sergeant Stewart, Corporal Wm. Nelson, privates Edward Carr and John Walsh were killed. Lt. Hall received orders from General Howard not to fire on the Indians in the mountains, unless he found them engaged in actual outrages. The same order was sent to all military posts South of Gila river.

On the same day of the murder of the soldiers General Howard was at this time on the mountains with the noted Apache chief, Cochis, to try to induce him to go to the reservations.

On the 8th of October a band of Apaches from Sanata Reller mountains, with stolen cattle, attacked a party of miners 30 miles from Tucson, and robbed them of all their animals. Two of the miners are missing.

The Indians are armed with the best kind of breach loading guns, and fixed ammunition.

Raleigh, Sept. 26, 1872.

LET US SAVE NORTH CAROLINA

We can save North Carolina. Of this there can be no doubt.

We have fifty thousand white majority. What a shame to our people that a Radical is now in the Executive chair!

North Carolina may decide this Presidential contest. Mr. Greeley can be elected without the votes of Ohio and Pennsylvania.

Our cause is not hopeless. The recent elections in the North seem to have inspired our friends with fresh courage to press on in the fight.

The stupendous frauds practiced in Philadelphia and other points in Pennsylvania, have aroused the indignation of honest men everywhere, and may cause a re-action against the corrupt party which has to be bolstered up by such disgraceful means.

The Liberal press, North and South, calls for united action, thorough organization, firmness, fortitude, and renewed efforts on the part of the opponents of Radicalism.

We can win yet! The question is—will our friends go forward in the canvass like brave men, determined to conquer at all hazards?

But, whatever may be the result in other States, we must save North Carolina!

We must show to the whole country that North Carolina is not Radical at heart—that her people have not yet bowed their necks to the yoke—that her sons despise corruption, despotism and legalized crime—that they protest against the enormities of Grant's Administration—that their hearts still burn with the same principles of civil liberty, regulated by the Constitution, that animated the breasts of their honored ancestors.

Let us save North Carolina! We have but a short time to work. The election is close at hand. The fifth of November will soon be here. Let our electors and canvassers in every county infuse zeal and enthusiasm in our ranks.

We must save North Carolina. We have the power if we will only use it. We have the strength if we will only put it forth.

Our canvassers in every County should be at work now. The indifference should be aroused. The croakers should be silenced. Disaffection should give way to courage, energy, determination, zeal, and everywhere, all over the State, the friends of reform and good government should stand together in unbroken lines, prepared, on the day of election, to move forward with resistless power!

PRESS ONWARD!
ONWARD is the watchword now!

The smoke of the preliminary skirmishes has cleared away. We now see the enemy's position and know our weak points.

Our troops stand undismayed and undemoralized.

There is no flagging—no surrender. There is but one cry—onward! There is but one determination—never give up the fight.

Onward is the watchword now!

The fight is not lost. The decisive struggle is yet to be fought. November will tell the tale. It will be a desperate battle. We fight against immense odds.

We fight against organized corruption and the combined patronage of the Government. We fight in a just and noble cause. We have everything to lose and nothing to gain by a cowardly surrender to our foes.

We must make a bold, manly, gallant fight.

We bear aloft the banner of REFORM and RECONCILIATION. If its folds go down in defeat, if we do our duty faithfully and unflinchingly we will stand acquitted of all blame for the wrongs and outrages which a Radical triumph will entail.

LET ONWARD BE THE WATCHWORD from now until the fifth day of November, and then if the American people are true to themselves, true to their country and true to the principles of Constitutional liberty, the sun of victory will smile upon the banner borne by the hosts of reform, and a Waterloo defeat will overwhelm with disorder and confusion the army of corruptionists and plunderers.

BLAINE, OF MAINE.

It turns out that "Blaine, of Maine," referred to in the list of names on Oakes Ames' letter to Mr. McComb, concerning the Credit Mobilier fraud, is not Speaker Blaine, but his brother, J. E. Blaine.

We published the retraction of the charge which the Tribune made, in our telegraphic columns.

Mr. Blaine, the Congressman, is entirely exonerated, but Mr. Blaine, the Congressman's brother, has become involved in the scandal.

From this it appears that the names are not mythical—that there is a "Blaine, of Maine," who answers to the description—and the fact that he happens to be a brother of the Congressman, while it exonerates the Speaker Blaine, does not at all weaken the suspicion against the other Congressmen named in the list.

Now, if Wilson, Boutwell, Dawes and others whose names appear on the list, should happen not to have brothers to bear the responsibility and lift the burdens from their shoulders, how unfortunate it would be!

WHO ENDORSES RADICALISM?

The colored vote in North Carolina is nearly eighty thousand.

In the August election, over one hundred and ninety-five thousand votes were cast. Of these, Caldwell nominally received over ninety-eight thousand. Estimating the colored vote cast for him at seventy-eight thousand, he received the suffrages of only twenty thousand votes of the white men.

From this statement it will be seen that Judge Merrimon and our other candidates on the State ticket received over seventy-five thousand majority of the white votes of the State.

Is any comment necessary? Do not these figures tell more plainly than any language we could use, on which side are arrayed the virtue, in elegance and honor of the State?

Of the twenty thousand white Republicans, it would be interesting to ascertain how many were office-holders, how many were candidates for office, how many were bought up by money and the promise of patronage, and how few are Republicans from sincere and upright motives!

THE RIGHT SPIRIT.

The following is the conclusion of Col. A. K. McClure's ringing address to the people of Pennsylvania, after the election in that State.

We commend his stirring speech to those of our friends who may be disposed to relinquish the great struggle against corruption, because the first skirmishes on the lines have not been completely successful:

"Friends of good government let no triumph of lawlessness deter you from giving your best energies to the cause. The highest prerogative of a free people has been violently usurped by in solvent and debauched power, and the people must it resist it, and resist it promptly, or give unquestionable license to wrong. Now, more than ever in this contest, is the election of Horace Greeley to the Presidency a supreme necessity, if peace and honest government are not to perish from the annals of our history. Right must triumph sooner or later, and it will yet triumph in this desperate struggle if the people shall prove faithful to themselves, to their laws, and to their country."

The Presbyterian Church, South, has 34 Foreign missionaries. The annual expenses are $60,000. North Carolina has less than any other State.

Three barrels of human remains were found on a common at Louisville the other day, but a neighboring medical college blunts any suspicion of foul play.

COL. WADDELL'S ADDRESS.

We find in the Wilmington papers of yesterday, the following spirited and patriotic address from Col. A. M. Waddell, addressed to his constituents of the 3rd Congressional District.

Col. Waddell's address is timely and excellent. His remarks are as applicable to the other Districts as well as to the 3rd, and should serve to arouse our people all over the State to a sense of their duty, and to the shame of apathy in the present momentous struggle to wrest the reins of Government from the hands of corrupt and reckless politicians:

To the Conservative and Liberal Voters of the Third Congressional District:

FELLOW CITIZENS:—The exaggerated importance which has been given to the late elections in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, and the equally exaggerated depression among the friends of Mr. Greeley consequent thereupon, make it the duty of those who enjoy your confidence to offer you their counsel at this time. As I cannot meet my constituents before the 5th of November, I avail myself of the newspapers to address you. I shall also speak to as many of you as possible between now and that time.

It is natural—in politics, as in other matters—when high hopes in regard to an issue of importance are disappointed, to yield to despondency; but it is criminal and cowardly in freemen to renounce their highest privilege because of possible defeat in an election. We did build high hopes on the October elections, and we are disappointed; but if these elections were absolutely conclusive of the result in November we would still have no right to abandon the contest. They are not so, however. Admitting that Pennsylvania and Ohio will go against Mr. Greeley (and it is probable, though by no means certain, that they will go against him), he can still be elected without them.

His nomination at Cincinnati and Baltimore imposed an obligation upon us which his noble speeches have greatly strengthened; but leaving all this out of view, we owe it to ourselves to see that North Carolina votes against Gen. Grant.

If we are sincere in asserting the transcendence importance of the Presidential election to ourselves, should not our efforts to win be redoubled? We could afford to be indifferent if it was a matter of little importance to us; but if it involves our highest welfare, how can we justify our apathy? "Let us, then, be up and doing!" Let the organization of Clubs proceed. Let the Electors do their duty, and go vigorously into the canvass at once. Let the people be aroused from their lethargy. Whatever course others may pursue, let us redeem North Carolina and hold fast the doctrine of local self-government, which underlies liberty, and which is disappearing from the political creed of this country. We disappointed our friends in August, although we were fighting a power which was almost irresistible. Let us surprise them in November, when that power, instead of being concentrated on one State will be distributed over thirty-seven States, and will be that much less formidable.

Bestir yourselves, then, fellow-citizens; organize—your line—close ranks—remember the alternative presented to you, viz: four more weary years of robbery and oppression, on one side, or reconciliation, peace and justice on the other, and let your slogan be: "Once more unto the breach, dear friends—Once more!"

Very respectfully,
A. M. WADDELL.

CARRYING THE WAR INTO NEW YORK.—The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says:

It has been decided by the political organizations supporting the re-election of the administration to concentrate all their strength in New York, in the hope of carrying that State in November against the Liberal ticket. Secretary Delano left for that Friday night to speak. The National Republican Committee have turned their work in that direction and not content with a triumph on the Presidential ticket, intend to secure as great gains as are possible of Congressmen. This Committee have advice from every Congressional district in the country, on which they base an estimate of a gain of twenty-four over the majority in the present House, which, if it turns out correct, will give the Administration a majority of sixty-seven in that body of Congress. There seems to be a desire to centralize a political power in both branches of the government unparalleled for its enormity since the days of the Fortieth Congress.

THE COTTON CROP.—According to the most careful estimates the ravages of the cotton worm have resulted in a loss to the producers alone of more than eighteen millions of dollars, while a proportionate less falls on the cotton merchants in the large cities and on the Government, in the way of revenue.

All this havoc has been perpetrated by a little insect that has thus far baffled the ingenuity of man, and robbed him of his labor at the very moment he was about to reap it.

How IT WAS DONE.—The correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says that some of the Conservative detectives who have returned to Washington from Philadelphia furnish abundant proof of the frauds there. In one instance a Washington colored man was followed until he had voted nine times, each time disguising himself, and finally appearing in green spectacles and a white necktie.

The maiden name of Fanny Fern, who died on Thursday last, was Sara Payson Willis. She was sister of N. P. Willis, the poet, and the wife of James Parton, the biographer and magazineist. She had reached the age of sixty-one, and was forty-five years old when she married her second husband, Mr. Parton.

Since the great Chicago fire—one year—buildings costing $45,558,300 have been erected. Thirteen hotels have been built. Insurance paid $32,000,000.

Rumor hath it that Father Hyacinthe made a good thing of it in a worldly point of view, by his late marriage. His blushing bride is worth a trifle of $75,000.

The health of Mrs. Greeley is such as to prevent Mr. Greeley from making any more visits at present.

It is said that Alexander H. Stephens is about to announce himself as a candidate for representative in Congress from the Eighth District of Georgia.

Conflict of Races in Arkansas.

Scrim trouble between whites and blacks at Osceola, a little town forty miles above Memphis, on the Arkansas shore, which has been brewing for several days, culminated in a fight, in which one negro was killed and several wounded. The trouble originated in the killing of Murray, the sheriff, some six weeks since, by Fitzpatrick, the county register, and the breaking up of a Conservative meeting last week, as reported at the time. Fitzpatrick was to have been tried this week. To prevent the trial coming off it is believed that he incited the negroes to arm and surround the town, when the whites in turn armed and drove them off.

The officers of the court and some merchants, with a portion of their goods arrived here late last night, the negroes having threatened to return and burn the town.

The latest advices from Osceola represent all quiet, but fears are felt of another attack by negroes on the town.

Gen. Bradley T. Johnson, of Richmond, received a bag of mail matter, containing "Greely speeches to the west." When opened, it turned out that a rascally radical post master had "killed" Know Nothing Wilson's speech at Great Falls.

Gov. Scott, of South Carolina, a regular specimen Radical, has brought a suit of libel against the New York Tribune. He estimates his damage to character at $100,000.

The Missourians are at work in earnest. There is great enthusiasm, and they expect to carry the State for Greely by an overwhelming majority.

The Greelies in Illinois are very earnest. The best men are active canvassing. The prospect for Greely is good.

Mr. Sumner's health is no better. He suffers from a spinal complaint and has gone to Paris to consult leading physicians.

The mother of Mrs. Laura D. Fair attempted suicide in San Francisco on Thursday night.

One of the last acts of Mr. Seward was to have the N. Y. Times read to him, when nature succumbed.

Gov. Bank and Colonel McCook are very confident that Greely will carry Ohio in the coming election.

The Liberals of Ohio are not in the least dismayed. They say the fight has just begun.

Captain Belfield Stiles, an old respected citizen of Petersburg, died in that city on Wednesday last.

Horace Greeley at Baltimore—

Grand Democratic Convention—

A Plea for American Unity.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 10.—Horace Greeley delivered an address before the Maryland State Agricultural and Mechanical Society to-day at the Fair grounds, treating specially on the improvement of worn out lands. About 12 persons were present. To night there was a grand torch light procession by the Democratic clubs of all the wards, which was reviewed by Mr. Greeley. Previous to the passing of the procession Mr. Greeley addressed an immense crowd congregated in front of the Carrollton Hotel, as follows:

CITIZENS OF MARYLAND.—I greet you as co-workers in a common cause—the cause of our whole country and every part of it; the cause of every race and every class in that country. I plead for national reconciliation. I plead for the restoration of common rights to every citizen now deprived of them. Enthusiastic cheer! I plead for that unity of feeling without which the unity of territory and the unity of government are of small account. Let us be one people—an American people—forgetting our differences, deploring our past calamities, and resolved that we shall evermore be a united and harmonious people. For that cause of national unity and prosperity I stand and testify.

I beseech you, let nothing discourage you to press on to that triumph which will certainly be accorded us, if not in the near future, at a later day. Our cause is just. Let us never doubt, then, that a generous people will accord it, and that time shall write our memories green, in that we never despaired of our country, never deserted her, and never wished to make one citizen the enemy of the other at a time when there was too much bitterness, but pleaded for peace and reconciliation. "Blessed are the peacemakers." Let us endeavor to deserve and enjoy that blessing. Friends, I cannot reach you with my voice, and therefore will close. [Great cheering.]

The Hartranft men made three counts before they got the thing fixed to suit. At first it was 15,000 majority, then 17,000, but as there were but 20,000, they finally concluded to put it at 30,000.

TENDER AND TRUE.

He stole from his nest in my golden hair
A knot of silver blue;
He placed on my hand a jewel rare,
And whispered soft as he held it there—
Tender and true—adieu, adieu!

Then and was bending with blossoms
white,
The roses blushed through the dew;
The violet smiled in the glowing light,
And life was happy, and hope was bright,
Tender and true—adieu, adieu!

They brought my soldier home to me,
And my heart of ribbon blue;
But the cruel wound on his forehead hid
